FADE UP

TAXPAYER'S APT: A man labors over his taxes, papers spread out all over a table

The Taxpayer is blasted wide-eyed by rap music coming from next door

SFX: Heavy-rhythm rap music as heard through a wall

NEXT DOOR: we see a man enjoying the music coming from a huge boom-box sitting on a table

MUSIC: Heavy-rhythm rap music, very loud

TAXPAYER'S APT: The Taxpayer gives up in frustration and reaches for the yellow pages

In close-up, his finger lands on a Rent Way ad

Montage: A man in a Rent-Way shirt sets up a Neighbor Hater system in the taxpayer's apartment

NARRATOR: The Techwood Neighbor Hater is 500 watts of high-quality sound and fury, produced by separate components that include two fifteen-inch woofers in each speaker cabinet.

Camera pulls back from a close-up of the final connection being made to reveal that the system has been set up facing the wall

So if you hate having to listen to your neighbor's music...

NEXT DOOR: The man listening to the rap music is shocked out of his reverie

MUSIC: Flight of the Valkeries - very loud

The man hangs onto his chair in wide eyed fright and watches helplessly as his boom box vibrates off the table and crashes onto the floor

TAXPAYER'S APT: The Taxpayer happily returns to his taxes

NARRATOR: ..just crank up the Techwood Neighbor Hater -- and let them hate you for a change!

MUSIC: Out
